Sir

not on file The report on signalling, received by the Inspector General I.S. Troops, from the Inspector of Army Signalling in the Madras & Bombay Commands, shows that the training of men in signalling has not received sufficient attention. I should feel much obliged if you would kindly ask the Chief Commandant to give the necessary orders, for a proper system of instruction & practice to be regularly kept up throughout the year.

Sir

In continuation of my letter no 249 dated 15th June 1899, I have the honor to suggest that the following books on signalling be purchased direct from Ghulam Muhiuddin & Sons, "Civil & Military News Press," Ludhiana, Punjab in such numbers as may be considered necessary for the signallers of the Mysore I. S. Lancers, and that the instructions contained therein be adhered to.
